The Road to 2012 The role of the Indigos and the Quest for the Holy Grail

Most people these days have the distinct feeling that something pivotal is looming on the horizon, that this is a critical juncture in our tenure here as embodied souls. Only dim traces regarding the immense significance of the time we are living in now has survived, for the most part, in myths, legends and fairy tales!

Much of what the world knows, or at least suspects, regarding the profound nature of the time we are living in now, comes mainly from the Mayan calendar. The winter solstice of December 21st, 2012, is the end of the Mayan Long Count Calendar, and represents an extremely close conjunction of the winter solstice sun with the crossing point of the Galactic Equator and the Galactic Center, a time when the plane of our solar system aligns with the plane of our galaxy, the Milky, Great White or 'Broad' Way, a time when, once again a sun/son is hung upon a cross for our redemption! This IS the Time of Destiny and the Path of Grace and WE are the ones we've all been waiting for!

Many great teachers down through the ages have devoted their lives to understanding and unraveling the complex system of interconnected and interrelated calendars not only of the Mayans, but of the Aztecs, Incans, as well as a host of native, indigenous, ancient and pre-ancient cultures who seem to have had a knowledge of many things the veil of which our modern-day sciences are only just beginning to part!

Understanding the true nature of time...working with the consciousness of time itself, is the key to moving through this most critical phase with grace, ease, and most of all, joy!

In this very special seminar experience, Phil will discuss the vital role fo the Indigos: who and what they (we) truly are, and why they (we) have once again incarnated here for no less a reason than to facilitate our safe and joyous passage into the next Golden Age, J.R.R. Tolkien's 4th Age of Man! Encoded in the DNA of all Indigos on the planet is held not only the lost, fogotten history of our race, the deeper meaning and purpose of our lives, but the keys to our evolution...the keys to destiny!

- * What is the doorway, or portal, to the Sacred Source?
- * What is true meaning of the Sacred Tree, the Great Cross and the Womb of Creation?
- * What IS The Black Road, The Crossroads, The Dark Night of the Soul"?
- * What IS the Key to Revelation and the Secrets of the Magdalene?

Our very own future selves, the ANGELS, left us the clues. It is up to us to follow the trail we left ; to find our way home, back to the center, back to the source, back to ourselves....back to who we truly are...back to GOD! This is the true Quest for the Holy Grail, the greatest of ALL spiritual endeavors! It is the quest to re-claim our eternal selves, to set ourselves free! The Grail is something we have always carried within us!

Please join Phil for this most enlightening, entertaining, fun and most of all, experiential seminar experience.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
